Fictitious "Citibank" Scam

Arlington police warn about an e-mail scam claiming to originate from Citibank.

Basic Scam Information:

- E-mail states that the e-mail was generated by the "Citibank" computer server
- Indicates that it is necessary to verify your information on their website
- Provides a URL address to click to take you to the "Citibank" website

What can happen:

- Trick individuals into providing personal information such as full name, credit card number and PIN information
- Website has authentic appearance but the confidential information is asked to be entered into a small pop-up window

Avoid becoming a victim:

- Delete this e-mail without responding
- When you respond to any spam e-mail it provides the sender with information that the e-mail address is valid
